

SKEPTICISM

HISTORICAL AND CONTEMPORARY INQUIRIES

Edited by
G. Anthony Bruno and A.C. Rutherford

Skepticism

Skepticism is one of the most enduring and profound of philosophical problems. With roots from Plato and the Skeptics to Descartes, Hume, Kant, and Wittgenstein, skepticism presents a challenge that every philosopher must reckon with. In this outstanding collection, philosophers engage with skepticism in five clear sections: the philosophical history of skepticism in Greek, Humean, and post-Kantian thought; the nature and limits of certainty; the possibility of knowledge and related problems, such as perception and debates about rule-following and objectivity; the transcendental method as a response to skepticism; and overcoming the skeptical challenge.

Skepticism: Historical and Contemporary Inquiries is essential reading for students and scholars in epistemology and the history of philosophy and will also be of interest to those in related disciplines, such as religion and sociology.

G. Anthony Bruno is Lecturer in Philosophy at Royal Holloway University of London, UK. He has published numerous articles on Kant, German idealism, and phenomenology.

A.C. Rutherford is a doctoral student at the University of Bonn, Germany. Her current research focuses primarily on ancient epistemology and philosophy of mind.
