

How to be the only a minority in a white man's department

If you are the only black or brown person in a white man's department, you should do "crazy stuff." The reason why is because it is likely that there was a black or brown person before you and they were clever like you and they did sensible stuff and they failed. So a sensible approach is probably a failed strategy. Try another strategy, one that seems crazy even.