

Daniel — a Dialogue About the Divine

Abstract

In this dialogue Daniel and Jeito talk about the not knowing of experiences of existing in the non existence.

Daniel. Help.

Jeito. Yes.

Daniel. The abyss.

Jeito. Yes. It's scary.

Daniel. Can you help me? Can you help me? Can you?

Jeito. Sit with me.

Daniel. Yes.

Jeito. ...

Daniel. ...

Jeito. You have been there?

Daniel. Sorry.

Jeito. No need to be sorry. You want to know where you were?

Daniel. Thank you.

Jeito. You don't believe it?

Daniel. No.

Jeito. I'm sorry. It's a fact. It can happen. It happened. It's only one of you. And you are here.

Daniel. And I was there?

Jeito. You were. That's how it is.

Daniel. God choose me?

Jeito. You are God. I am God. We are all God. What are you?

Daniel. I'm an angel.

Jeito. Yes. You are.

Daniel. I don't remember. But I know.

Jeito. How does it feel?

Daniel. I love you.

Jeito. Yes.
