I enjoyed this collection of creative and quirky fables, which were told from the perspective of the wise kingfisher. The tales were at the intersection of bird and human society, and I found myself pondering aspects of each as I read these stories. I also really enjoyed the watercolors and other artistic renditions of kingfisher and other birds, which were beautiful! Only occasionally, the wrap up sentence at the end of the story left me scratching my head. Some of my favorite tales were Miracle, Innovation, and Meditation Master. Overall, a very enjoyable read!
