

Research Handbook on Liberalism

Duncan Ivison, ed.

Forthcoming, May 2024

Contributors

Preface and Acknowledgements

1. Introduction: The Vicissitudes of Liberalism (Duncan Ivison)

Section 1: Foundations

2. Liberal Conceptions of the Self (Alexandre Lefebvre)
3. Rights on a Liberal Trajectory (Mathew Joseph)
4. Histories of Liberalisms (Duncan Ivison)
5. Liberalism and International Political Thought (Theodore Christov)
6. The Ethical State and the Awakened self: Towards a Reconstructed Liberalism (Vafa Ghazavi)
7. Liberalism and the Family (Riccardo Maria Spotorno)
8. The Historicity of Public Reason (Paul Patton)

Section 2: Conundrums

9. Liberalism and Belonging: Political Community and Minority Membership (Clayton Chin)
10. Liberalism and Relational Freedom: Re-encountering Indigenous Political Philosophies (Alison Weir)
11. Boundaries (Avery Kolers)
12. Immigration and Liberal Freedom (Chandran Kukathas)
13. Liberalism and Structural Injustice: When the Solution Becomes the Problem (Vittorio Buffachi)
14. The Challenges of Care and Dependence for Liberal Political Philosophy (Susan Dodds)

15. Decarcerating Civil Disobedience: Punishment, Policing, and the Problem of Innocence (Alexander Livingstone)

Section 3: Emergent Challenges

16. The Post Liberal Movement (Paul Kelly)

17. Liberalism and Populism (Simon Tormey)

18. Liberalism and the More-Than-Human (Danielle Celermajer, Darren Chang, David Schlosberg, and Christine Winter)

19. Liberalism and Automated Injustice (Chad Lee-Stronach)

20. The Challenges to Liberal Democracies of Political Disinformation (Lisa Hill)