[Science Communication]

Today marks the 7th anniversary of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Social Research (ISR), at Phenikaa University. ISR has for seven years now the place where the co-founders of this portal have been working and producing publications.

A special event occurs now as the Current Conservation magazine publishes a new writing piece by our member, Dr Minh-Hoang Nguyen [1].

This article also mentions several books published by the founder of ISR, i.e. [2-3].

It is such a pleasure reading a decent article on a special day like this. Congratulations to Dr Minh-Hoang Nguyen on this not-a-small feat.

And, last but not least, Happy Birthday to ISR.
