

Something want to tell Wife

I write below that I want to tell you something. I can tell you directly. But you cannot take it through my voice. You know or not, you did a great wound to me. In my life, no body insult me like this in front of my mother.

I know you do never know the respect to mother and relatives. I don't know who teach these behaviours.

I think nothing but parents.

You may think you did a clever talk or trickily say something. But in my view, you are cruel minded.

I don't like this kind of people since from my adulthood. But unfortunately, I had it with me.

I never cry so far in my conscious. But I did last night.

Nobody did to me so far. You did it. You did many time, But this time it punch my heart.

I don't know what you think about me. It seems to be, I am a useless dog.

My god! No body treat me this manner those who know very well. But as a wife You treat me this way, I need to agree I am a stupid which I let you grow this level.

I know what let you talk this way.

Once again I say, No body insult me in front of my mother.
